You walk down the dark dank passageway
searching for the way out -and stepping over the skeletons of those who never found it. Suddenly, you hear a noise from behind you, and feel more than smell a foul breath on the back of your neck. You stop, reach for your sword, and turn.

It is hideous. It is hungry.
It wants your blood

What are you going to do?

FANTASTIC FOUR #406:

Dr. Doom! Reed Richards! One of those two gents returns in this issue! And according to editor Nel Yomtov, "It's a real surprise as to where both Reed & Doom have been, and what they've been doing!" The September issue begins the 4-part "Doom Quest" storyline, which introduces a "new, major villain" with ties to the Fantastic Four family! Nel called FF penciler Paul Ryan "one of the top pros in the business," and writer Tom DeFalco "a master of intricate storylines!" With dynamic inking by Danny Bulanadi, you can't lose!

AVENGERS #392:

The spotlight falls on the Vision in this September release, as he comes under attack by mysterious twins who are closely tied to the Avengers! Terry Kavanagh, who co-plots the book with writer Bob Harras, hinted, "The Avengers start to get concerned about Tony — and we learn of the existence of a mysterious woman lurking in the background!" Terry summed up the incredible art by M.C. Wyman and Tom Palmer in one word: "Great!"

IRON MAN #322:

A shocker! Tony Stark shuts down Avengers Mansion! Has he lost his mind? That's what the Avengers want to know! Plus: more with Madame Masque! Editor Nel Yomtov praised his creative crew: "(Writer) Terry Kavanagh is really running with this story! (Penciler) Hector Oliveira is doing wonderful, clean stuff. (Inker) Mark McKenna is doing a real nice job. And John Kalisz is one of the top colorists in the business!" And the lettering ain't bad, either!

THE LAST AVENGERS
STORY #1 OF 2:

Many years in the future, the remnants of the Avengers find themselves in final battle against some of their most formidable foes! We can safely say this is a team of Avengers you have never seen before! It's brought to you by writer Peter David and painter Ariel Olivetti! Peter confesses, "I was unfamiliar with Ariel's work, but now I'm a big fan — it's beautifully done!" This is the first Avengers story Peter has written, and it looks like it will be his last! Warns Peter, "The villains are destined to win!"

SILVER SURFER
#110:

Norrin Radd needs a vacation, so he and Legacy head to the planet of pleasure, Syloqonna! But in this September smash, R & R stands for rampaging and roughhousing! Writer Mike Lackey explained, "When Nebula shows up, she crashes the party, big-time!" Mike added that working with legendary artist "Big" John Buscema "was super — like a dream come true!"

to be working with artist Ron Frenz! "The book looks terrific! Ron adds a lot to the story — he really brings Cap to life!" Patriotic inker Denis Rodier completes Cap's creative crew!

FORCE WORKS #18:

The team heads to Viet Nam in this October classic, to investigate part of the country which is being consumed by a time storm! Writer Dan Abnett informed us, "Force Works risk their necks by going inside the time storm, where they encounter the Anapironauts!" Dan couldn't reveal what the A-neuts were up to, but he did say, "Their agenda is one of elimination!" Force-fully working with Dan are co-writer Andy Lanning and guest artists Yancey Labat and Rey Garcia!

AVENGERS UNPLUGGED #7:

Writer Glenn Herdling revealed the gravity of this October onslaught: "Graviton's powers are going haywire out in the Midwest! His field of anti-gravity is rapidly expanding — cars, people are being lifted up in the air! Things are really going crazy!" It's up to a trio of Avengers — Vision, Deathbird, and Hercules — to save the day! Glenn described the M.C. Wyman/Scott Koblish art as "powerful!"

CAPTAIN MARVEL #1:

Launching in October is the son of Captain Marvel — Genis — in his own cosmic series, by Fabi-an Nicieza, Ed Benes, and Mike Sellers! Fabes calls this "a non-traditional super-hero book!" The first issue has CM framed for the destruction of a space station! Fabes summed up this series by saying, "It's not a book you would expect me to write. It's not a book you would expect Mark [Gruenewald] to edit! It's different — it's racist!" Vows Fabian, "This book is edgier than anything from the Edge line!"

AMERICA
#446:

"Operation: Rebirth" continues, as a group of cultists get their hands on a cosmic cube, and plot to remake reality in their own image! Writer Mark Waid informed us that "Cap finds himself forming an alliance with one of his oldest enemies to stop them!" Mark said he is thrilled
